REDWOOD MEDIA GROUP POSTPONES ARTEXPO NEW YORK

World's largest international fine art marketplace tentatively rescheduled for the Fall due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak

New York, NY – March 12th, 2020: Redwood Media Group, the nation's leader in exhibitions and event production, media, and marketing for the global art community, announced today it will be postponing Artexpo New York to the Fall due to the health issues arising from the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak.

Artexpo New York was scheduled to take place at Pier 94 in Manhattan, April 23—26. Due to the growing health concern together with advice from local authorities, Redwood Media Group deemed it necessary to move the show to new dates in the Fall. Artexpo New York will tentatively take place October 1—4 at the same location, Pier 94 in Manhattan.

“Due to the current events surrounding the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak, and our concern for the health and safety of our exhibitors, attendees, staff and volunteers, we have decided to postpone Artexpo New York to October,” says Eric Smith, CEO and owner of Redwood Media Group. “Health and safety are our top priority and we have adhered to the advice of local authorities. We look forward to welcoming everyone to our 42nd year of the show in the Fall.”

Tickets that have already been purchased to attend Artexpo New York will be honored for the new dates. Alternatively, current ticket holders who require a refund can visit Eventbrite.

Attendees at the World's largest international fine art marketplace will enjoy artwork from more than 300 exhibitors from around the world, as well as the show's annual schedule of programming, including the Spotlight Program, Art Labs, Topics & Trends Educational Seminars, and more.
